

Man Bound Over In Assault Case

YPSILANTI — A 25-year-old Ypsilanti township man charged with beating the 76-year-old operator of a local Chinese laundry was bound over to circuit court yesterday by Municipal Judge Edward D. Deake.

Slated for arraignment in the higher court Tuesday on charges of assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder is Richard L. Bloom of 357 Ohio St.

Bloom was arrested by city police after the laundryman, Loy Ping, signed the aggravated assault complaint. Officers said Ping, who operates the Hing Lee Laundry at 108 Pearl St., was apparently beaten when he refused to give Bloom money. The incident occurred June 22 in Riverside Park and on W. Michigan Ave.

In other court action yesterday, John E. Williams, 43, of Jackson pleaded guilty to state police
